

Suggested interview questions
The Patriot Parent: Still the Best Hope for America

Why did you write this book and why now?

You say in the book that our children are being brainwashed. By whom?

Isn't the term "brainwashed" offensive?

What is patriotism?

You have addressed the relevance of the nation's forefathers--why?

Why do you think we should be concerned with the youth of our country and what they are learning?

What five things can parents do right now?

What can I do to set a patriotic example?

What is a good time to begin talking to my kids about patriotism?

Is this a Democrat vs. Republican thing?

<http://www.parentsrulewithpat.com>